No Matter Where You Go - There You Are

By Charlie Gamble

Sounds kind of silly, doesn't it? A more serious comment from a Christian should be, "No matter where I go, He will be there with me." This idea was a part of Jesus' prayer in the garden that night., "Father, I desire that they also whom You gave Me may be with Me where I am, that they may behold My glory which You have given Me; for You loved Me before the foundation of the world? John 17:24 (NKJV) Of course, there is an immediate context to these words but the prayer extends far beyond that.

With our summer season coming there will be many opportunities to travel. The places we go and activities of our vacations must include Jesus. Our dress and behavior must glorify Him at all times. There is no vacation time from Christianity. We can be assured that the Devil isn't going to take a break.

We have surrendered everything about ourselves to Jesus all the time.

Privileged to Work for the Lord

By Larry Miles

My fellow Christians, are you seeking to serve the Lord Jesus in the best way you possibly can? Are you seeking to be "conformed to the image of the Son of God?" Are you putting the Lord Jesus Christ first in your lives? We need to make Him the Lord of our lives. A chorus says, "They'll know we are Christians by our love."

It must be our aim to uplift the Lord Jesus before a lost world. Are we letting our lights shine, or are we indifferent toward the lost?

We need only to look to Calvary to see what it cost the Lord Jesus for us to be saved. Let that motivate you to greater service for the Master. He's coming again! It will take effort for us to serve Him; anything worth having is worth working for. As the Word of God says, let's work out our own salvation with fear and trembling." We are not saved by works, but are saved to work (Ephesians 2:8-10).
