It's Strange

It's strange how twenty dollars seems like such a large amount when you donate it to church, but such a small amount when you go shopping.

It's strange how two hours seem so long when you at church, and how short they seem when you're watching a good movie.

It's strange that you can't find words to say when you're praying, but you have no trouble thinking what to talk about with a friend.

It's strange how difficult it is to read one chapter of the Bible, but how easy it is to read a popular novel.

It's strange how everyone wants front row tickets to concerts, but they want to sit in the last row at church.

It's strange how we need to know about an event for church two or three weeks before the day so we can include it in our agenda, but we can adjust it for other events in the last minute.

It's strange how difficult it is to learn a fact about God and share it with others, but it's easy to repeat gossip.

It's strange how we believe everything that magazines and newspapers say, but we question the words in the Bible.

Answer to Puzzle: There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment.
