

Welcome

The Chardon church of Christ welcomes you to every service and to a full investigation of what we teach, in the light of the Scriptures. At Chardon we read from the King James Version of the Bible.

The church of Christ occupies a unique place in the religious world. It is no part of Judaism, Catholicism, or Protestant Denominationalism. It is as distinct from these religions as they are from each other. Its plea for a return to the Bible has made it appealing to those who long for spirituality and simplicity of the church as revealed in the Bible.

We preach the same gospel and teach the same plan of salvation based upon the grace of God as taught by the apostles. Rom. 1:16.

This plan includes: Faith in Christ; Mk.16:16; Repentance of sins; Acts 2:38; Confession of faith in Christ; Matt. 10:32; Baptism; (This baptism is a burial in water of a penitent believer to wash away his sins.) Eph. 4:5.

Our worship is according to the New Testament pattern. Jn. 4:23-24. Services consist of: Singing without the use of man-made instruments of music; Eph. 5:19; Praying to God; Acts 2:42. Observing the Lord's Supper each first day of the week; Acts 20:7; Giving by members of the congregation; 1 Cor. 16:1-2; Teaching of God's Word; Acts 2:42.

Answer to the Puzzle:

Hidden Phrase: Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God believe also in me.

There is no virtue in exercising restraint when we lay by in store on the first day of the week.

Longing For Home

By Patrick Hogan

The last six weeks of the year bring a real concentration of holidays. At last two of those holidays generally involve family time when folks look forward to either being back home or having family members from somewhat distant locations come back home. The reunions are usually anticipated and enjoyed.

With such thoughts in mind, perhaps we should focus on the ultimate homecoming. In John 14:1-3 Jesus told His disciples, "Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also." What a glorious thought! Jesus will come again to take His people home to the Father's house!

While there may be things we do not fully understand about Heaven, this much is certain—a place described as the "Father's House" must be a truly wonderful place to be! To live eternally in the presence of God and Jesus, who gave Himself for us, will be far more joyful than we can comprehend.

As we enjoy family reunions let us be reminded of that great Homecoming. Let's make sure that we are preparing for that day when Jesus will return to take us to the Father's House where we can be with Him forever!

Patrick Hogan serves as a minister and elder of the Shady Acres Church of Christ, in Sikeston, MO.
