

Welcome

The Chardon church of Christ welcomes you to every service and to a full investigation of what we teach, in the light of the Scriptures.

The church of Christ occupies a unique place in the religious world. It is no part of Judaism, Catholicism, or Protestant Denominationalism. It is as distinct from these religions as they are from each other. Its plea for a return to the Bible has made it appealing to those who long for spirituality and simplicity of the church as revealed in the Bible.

We preach the same gospel and teach the same plan of salvation based upon the grace of God as taught by the apostles. Rom. 1:16.

This plan includes: Faith in Christ; Mk.16:16; Repentance of sins; Acts 2:38; Confession of faith in Christ; Matt. 10:32; Baptism; (This baptism is a burial in water of a penitent believer to wash away his sins.) Eph. 4:5.

Our worship is according to the New Testament pattern. Jn. 4:23-24. Services consist of: Singing without the use of man-made instruments of music; Eph. 5:19; Praying to God; Acts

2:42. Observing the Lord's Supper each first day of the week; Acts 2:42; Giving by members of the congregation; I Cor. 16:1-2; Teaching of God's Word; Acts 2:42.

Resilient Christians are Survivors

By Gerald Cowan

I used to think resilience meant ability to cope, patience to keep on and not give up, the ability to function even if parts of the system were dysfunctional or inadequate. It is all those things and more, by extension. The dictionary says it is elasticity: ability to be stretched out of shape and then return to proper shape.

How many resilient people do you know who have come back after defeat, have risen above inhibiting, debilitating handicaps to become great?

Here are seven characteristics of resilient people (compiled by Steven and Sybil Wolin in their book, The Resilient Self. There is a significant omission from their list, leaving it seriously deficient.

1. Insight – wisdom and understanding.
2. Independence.
3. Relationships – functioning as part of a group.
4. Initiative - self-starting.
5. Creativity.
6. Humor.
7. Morality.

A notable deficiency in the Wolins' list is Spirituality. We do not refer to "the indomitable human spirit," or one's "true humanity," but rather the eternal, unquenchable spirit from God which enables us to be godly, like God. The rational, emotional, volitional faculties of man make him able to pattern his own character after that of God.

Man's great problem is that before he comes to understand godliness and righteousness according to God's law, he has become warped out of shape by his own sin. How can he get back to his proper initial shape, back to what God designed and intended him to be? The answer: Hear and obey God's truth, and do it from the heart. Be fully identified with the Creator and with His Christ.

Even Christians stumble and fall at times. But the same obedient penitent faith that straightened them out in the first place can put them back in shape and keep them there. God has given us all the spiritual resources we need to get in shape and stay in shape – to survive, conquer, and overcome everything.
