

Welcome

The Chardon church of Christ welcomes you to every service and to a full investigation of what we teach, in the light of the Scriptures. At Chardon we read from the King James Version of the Bible.

The church of Christ occupies a unique place in the religious world. It is no part of Judaism, Catholicism, or Protestant Denominationalism. It is as distinct from these religions as they are from each other. Its plea for a return to the Bible has made it appealing to those who long for spirituality and simplicity of the church as revealed in the Bible.

We preach the same gospel and teach the same plan of salvation based upon the grace of God as taught by the apostles. Rom. 1:16.

This plan includes: Faith in Christ; Mk.16:16; Repentance of sins; Acts 2:38; Confession of faith in Christ; Matt. 10:32; Baptism; (This baptism is a burial in water of a penitent believer to wash away his sins.) Eph. 4:5.

Our worship is according to the New Testament pattern. Jn. 4:23-24. Services consist of : Singing without the use of man-made instruments of music; Eph. 5:19; Praying to God; Acts 2:42. Observing the Lord's Supper each first day of the week; Acts 20:7; Giving by members of the congregation; I Cor. 16:1-2; Teaching of God's Word; Acts 2:42.

The Bible

By Lawrence Barr

The third century Christian, Tertullian, said, "Truth does not blush." So why have I, at times felt as though I was blushing when explaining some truth from God's word? I hope and pray that you have not had such an experience. I am determined never to do such again. God might have decided to just plop kernels of truth into our minds. He might have given us authoritative prophets of the truth in each and every community. Instead, he gave us the Bible, written by over 40 writers over a period of 1,600 years. Certainly, there are some parts that are hard to understand. But if one reads it a few times through, he will come away with a certainty of the ultimate authorship. No group of mere human beings over such a period could have come up with such a consistent representation of the nature of God and how he wants to relate to human beings. So we have the Scriptures, "inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; so that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work" (2 Tim. 3:16, 17). We must never represent ourselves as being perfect and full of total understanding. But let a question arise and there is a statement of Scripture about it, we should never refrain from saying, "the Bible says....", for to refrain would be to blush. How much more would we blush were someone to say on the day of judgment, "Why didn't you share that with me?" Another aspect to the truth not blushing is that when we pattern our lives after the truth of God's word, we will not blush when our lives are compared to that truth. As James said in 1:22, "But prove yourselves doers of the word, and not merely hearers who delude themselves."
