A New Day Dawns Everyday

Beginning in Job 38, God poses some questions to Job to try to get him to understand that God is all knowledgeable, all powerful, and in complete control. He begins by mentioning the creation of the earth and how the natural elements operate. In this section, God asks Job, "Have you commanded the morning since your days began, And caused the dawn to know its place...?" (v.12). The implication is that everything, even the dawn of each new day, is regulated by God.

I have always enjoyed watching the sunrise. Oftentimes I will get up early, drive out to the lake, and watch the day dawn. It is always inspiring. To see the colors awaken as the sun makes its appearance always brings hope and joy to my heart. It never fails to brighten my life as the landscape brightens before me. And the wonder of it is that God has made it so that each dawn is unique. I have never seen any two that are exactly alike.

Knowing that a new day dawns everyday helps to remind us that God is still a wonderful God and He is still in control. We, like the Psalmist, can proclaim, "This is the day the LORD has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it" (Psa. 118:24).

With each new day God makes it so that we have a fresh start at life. New blessings and opportunities await. With the knowledge of that, why shouldn't we always be looking on the brighter side? "Therefore we do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day." (2 Cor. 4:16)

As a concluding thought, I am including the following poem that I wrote several years ago:

Sunny Side Up

A sunrise is God's way of telling us...
...to lighten up,
...and brighten up,
and start each day anew
...to heighten up,
...enlighten up,
and take the sunny view.

WHERE IS IT WRITTEN?

For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 6:23

Ephesians 4:1-8 I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, <sup>2</sup>With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; <sup>3</sup>Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. <sup>4</sup>There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; <sup>5</sup>One Lord, one faith, one baptism, <sup>6</sup>One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. <sup>7</sup>But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. <sup>8</sup>Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.
